CONCERT AT THE STONE CHURCH The Concert at the Stone Church, six miles east of the city, Thursday evening, was a grand success in every sense of the work. The attendance was large, every seat in the Church being filled, and a better, satisfied, audience with an entertainment of the character, has not been seen in this region for some time. The music was of a high order and most excellently rendered, Prof. Weber, of this city, presided at the piano. The vocal part of the concart was furnished by part of the choir of the Fourth street M. E. Church and also the regular choir of the Church in which it was held. Several amateurs took part and acquitted themselves creditably. The parties which went out from the city, enjoyed a fine moonlight drive in returning, reaching home at a sessonable hour. Altogether the affair was one of
